

Happy Thanksgiving, America!

VFW encourages everyone to thank our nation's heroes

Nov 20, 2017

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Inspired by stories of generosity and friendship, Thanksgiving offers Americans the opportunity to express our gratitude and appreciation for the blessings in our lives. As we join with friends and family to give thanks, we must also remember our men and women in uniform and their families.

This Thursday and every day, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. says thank you to all who have and who continue to selflessly serve our great nation.

Happy Thanksgiving!
